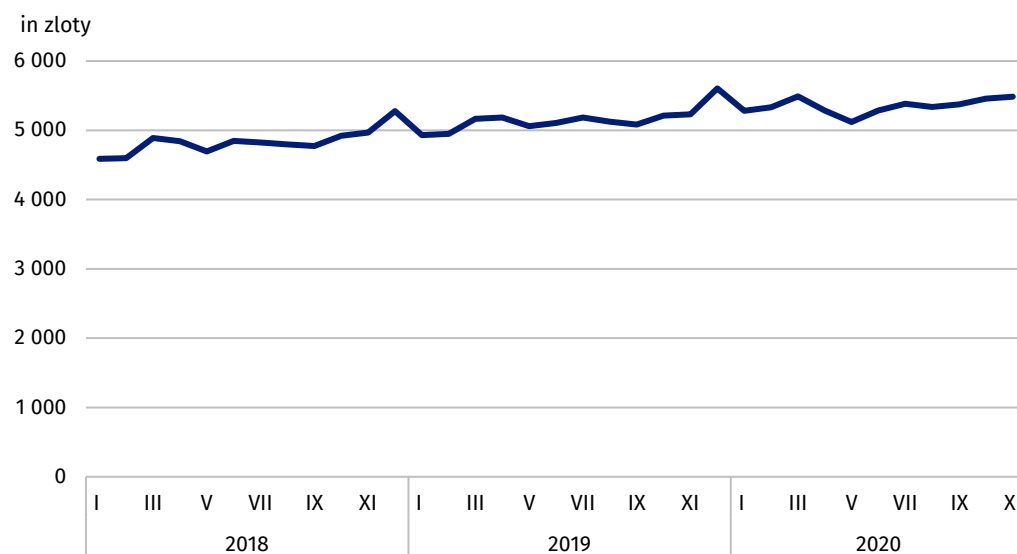

Chart 1. Average paid employment in enterprises sector

Due to the epidemic situation and its impact on the labour market, from March to May this year there was a decrease in the average paid employment month on month, while in the subsequent months of 2020 its increase began to be observed. In November this year there was a slowdown in the growth of average paid employment and a minimal increase of approx. 0.5 thousand full-time jobs was recorded. Such changes in the average paid employment during the year did not occur in the previous years.

In November this year, compared to October this year, a minimal increase in average gross wages and salaries in enterprise sector was noted (by 0.5%). It was caused among others by further payment of bonuses, quarterly, annual and jubilee awards and retirement severance pays (which beside the base remuneration are also included as components of wages and salaries).
